Operations Working Group

The Operations Working Group is back in action with a conference call on December 9 to discuss winter weather preparations. Each state DOT/DOR will present an overview of their operation plan for the coming winter plus share any new initiatives regarding DMS messaging, incident management, interstate closures, weather technologies and snow operation reporting methods.

In January, the group plans to discuss rural incident management and in February, the planned topic is the FHWA's Capability Maturity Model.

The OWG is also working on a March webinar and presentations at the Annual Meeting in April.

Guidance Tool for Implementation of Traffic Incident Management Performance Measures

Dec. 16 Noon - 1:30 pm
US DOT T3 Webinar

The most effective way to quantify a Traffic Incident Management (TIM) program is to measure the benefits. Collection of TIM related data is a path towards identifying improvement and management opportunities. What gets measured gets performed!
